FOR SALE BY PRIVATE TREATY

One of the Courts brightest interior designed luxury apartments set out in south Dublin's most upmarket development in Killiney Bay with panoramic views over the entire bay area from Sorrento terrace to Bray. This superior property is a rare and exclusive find within one of Dublin's best managed complexes with extensive grounds and landscaping with probably one of the best locations within the development to capture the views of what is often compared to the Italian Riviera. The location was formally the Killiney Court Hotel and the original restored villa still stands centre of complex built by Sir Thomas Deane in 1865, architect for the Royal College of Surgeons.

This property is accessed from main door to block as well as from car parking level internally. The main entrance hall is bright and spacious and leads to a large bright open plan living area with feature modern kitchen and dining area overlooking floor to ceiling glass feature to capture the views and accessing a large front balcony. There are two large double bedrooms to the rear with access to a rear balcony and each with their own ensuite bathroom, and the second bathroom has its own separate hallway access which can be used as guest wc.

This is one of Dublin's most established and upmarket locations adjacent to Killiney beach with direct access from the development and the DART station at Killiney is just located opposite the front entrance to the development allowing easy access to all of south Dublin's nicest villages on the way to the city centre. Dalkey village with its thriving mix of shops and restaurants and Killiney are also nearby as is Dun Laoghaire village and harbour with every possible leisure and recreational facility including the Peoples Park and Pier area.
